

CLUB SIX TWENTY

Independent, Sunderland
Thursday, 26 August

Neon Playground // Live Music //
Performance // Digital Art

Accessibility info:

Content Accessibility

Club Six Twenty is a night that celebrates local artists and musicians.

It will feature live music, circus, performance, visual art, installations, drag and cabaret.

Event will include loud music, flashing lights, strobe, haze, smoke, and sensory elements. There will be a quiet space for those who need to decompress across the night.

Performances may include strong language and nudity.

Doors open at 7.45pm, night starts at 8.15pm – full line up and timings will be made available for the event.

Elements of the event are participatory and you will be able to try various art forms throughout the night. This will be done in a welcoming and friendly way but you don't have to participate.

Alcohol will be served but so will none-alcoholic options.

Venue accessibility

The event will take place in Independent, Sunderland.

Entering the Venue: There is level access entry to the venue and across the full ground floor. Entry to the venue is through either of two sets of double doors, both 2 metres wide. Box office is situated just inside the main front door, it is at a slightly raised level however staff assistance is available if required.

Stairs: The first floor of the building has no level access; it is accessed only by two staircases. This means one of the installations will be inaccessible.

Toilets: Accessible toilet is located on the ground floor at the front of the main room. If a key is required staff will be more than happy to assist. Main toilet blocks are located upstairs.

Bar Service: There are three bars, two on the ground floor and one upstairs. All bar areas are at a raised height however lower level access is available at the end of all bars. Bar menus are available at all bars. Table service is available if required.

Any accessibility questions – please email: info@sunderlandculture.org.uk