

COVID info:

Please consider wearing a face mask and maintaining social distance during your visit.

While it is no longer mandatory to wear a face covering, we recommend visitors and participants consider wearing a face mask and maintaining social distance wherever possible in order that everyone may feel safe and secure when visiting, working or taking part.

This will also help us reduce the risk of closures or event cancellations.