

NGC Glass Prize Bursaries

National Glass Centre is currently presenting the exhibition NGC Glass Prize. The exhibition is part of a wider project kindly supported by the Garfield Weston Foundation. While artists based across Europe were able to submit their work for inclusion in the exhibition, the Glass Prize Bursaries are open to applications from artists who specialise in glass and who are either based in Sunderland or in the wider North East and have a connection to Sunderland through their practice.

We are looking to provide opportunities for artists to invest in the development of their practice. This may be achieved by investing in studio time, equipment, materials, mentoring or travel (or a combination of approaches).

We are looking to offer two bursaries of £4,750 each.

You are eligible to apply for a bursary if:

- You are an artist who specialises in working with glass.
- You are based in Sunderland or you are based in North East England (Northumberland, County Durham, Tyne & Wear and Teesside) and have a connection to Sunderland through your practice.
- You are not a student.
- You are able to undertake and complete work relating to a bursary between 1 February and 31 March 2022.

To apply for a bursary please provide the following information:

Please outline in no more than 500 words why you are applying for a bursary, how you would invest in your practice if you are successful and what you would see as the potential long-term benefits of receiving a bursary.
